

JOB PROFILE

Struttura richiedente	International Subsidiary Banks Division - Strategic & Markets Advisory Sub- Department - Strategic Advisory Office
Ruolo	Financial Analyst with exposure on credit analysis
Mission	Leading and supporting successful completion of assigned strategic/cross- functional initiatives
Attività	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide support to originate and deliver business strategic initiatives with specific focus on credit workstreams, in cooperation with other internal/external parties c/o the Head Office or in the local markets where the Groups operates • Involvement in strategic projects within the International Subsidiary Banks Division, also providing the reporting to the Top Management • Develop liaison with International Subsidiary Banks and Group units to coordinate the common initiatives, also identifying possible synergies
Requisiti	Degree in Economics, Accounting, Finance or Business Administration Knowledge of banking industry and organization High exposure to credit key topics such as NPL management and portfolios evaluation Deep knowledge of P&L/BS features of banks Excellent number crunching skills Advanced knowledge of the main Microsoft Office tools (Excel financial modelling, preparing of PowerPoint presentations) Strong analytical profile Flexible and open-minded to deal with multicultural environments, able to work under pressure Strong problem-solving and proactive attitude Teamwork attitude and excellent relationship skills Fluency in English
Titoli preferenziali	Banking multidisciplinary experiences High exposure to credit key topics such as NPL management and portfolios evaluation Direct or indirect exposure to M&A transactions would be a plus
Sede di lavoro	Milan